

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, January 2. 1707.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Jan. 4.

Palermo, November 29.

WE have had very stormy Weather on our Coasts above a fortnight, by which several Vessels and many Men have perish'd. A printed Relation of the Desolation made by the late Earthquakes in the Kingdom of Naples, is transmitted hither from Naples; it makes the Number of Souls that perish'd by that terrible Calamity above 20000, and the Number of those maim'd or hurt to be much greater. The Pirates of Algiers infest these Seas very much, they lately landed twice between Mazzara and Zacca on the South-side of this Kingdom, and carried off some Persons: They attempted to land likewise between Syracuse and Noto, but the Militia running to Arms repuls'd them. 4 of our Gallies are fitted out and well mann'd, and in a few Days will put to Sea to cruise on these Pirates. We continue in this Kingdom to compleat our Troops, and to put our maritime Places into a State of Defence.

Naples, Dec. 7. The Court of Madrid have sent very strict Orders to our Viceroy and the Council, to keep all the Troops of this Kingdom in such a Readiness, that on any Occasion they may take the Field at the first Notice. Above 6000 Men, who have lost all they had by the late Earthquakes, are come hither to seek their Livelihood, and many of them have taken Service among our Troops. The Duke of Attri has sent Advice to our Viceroy, that the Banditi begin to grow so numerous between Pesciolo and Aquila, that he had judg'd it convenient to order Part of his Troops to march from Scanno to Anversa, to secure that Post.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 4.

Vienna, Dec. 18. To Day the Emperour receiv'd Letters by an Express from his Envoy at Constantinople. 'Tis advis'd from the Turkish Frontiers, that the Turks refuse to let the Imperialists have Forrage or Provisions for Money: But that they permit the Hungarian Malecontents to raise Foot and Horse in Bosnia.

Vienna, Dec. 22. The Letters from Constantinople advise, that the Imperial Minister there, M. Guariert, who was lodg'd in the House formerly appointed for the Reception of publick Officers from Transilvania, had been oblig'd by the Turkish Ministers to remove out of it to make Room for Prince Ragotski's Deputy; the Reason given for it by the said Ministers, is, that Prince Ragotski is Master of much the greatest Part of Transilvania, and also of the Hearts of the Inhabitants. Prince Emanuel d'Elbeuf is arriv'd here from the Army in Italy.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 4.

Vienna, Dec. 22. The Princess Sobieski, Wife of Prince James of that Name, and Sister of the Emperess Dowager, having taken Leave of the Emperour and the Imperial Family, set out from hence the 20th Instant for Gratz in Stiria; the same Day the Prince of Lorrain Bishop of Osnabrug, set out from hence likewise to return to Osnabrug. 'Tis reported the Elector Palatine is expected here, to assist at a great Council of War that is to be held at Court about the Operations of the ensuing Campaign: And that Prince Eugene will come hither for the same purpose, after he has made himself Master of the Castle of Milan. M. Bruyninx Minister of Ho and, receiv'd Letters from Prince Ragotski two Days ago, but the Contents of them are not yet divulg'd. 'Tis advis'd from Gran, that a Detachment of that Garrison had surpris'd some Troops of Malecontents that had intrench'd themselves near Neydorf, and charg'd them so vigorously that they kill'd 2 Officers and 30 Soldiers, and put the rest to Flight; but were afterwards oblig'd to retire, having Intelligence that M. Bohiani was advancing against them with a Body of 2000 of the Enemy; they were also forc'd to leave behind them 2 Pieces of Cannon, for want of Horses to draw them. They write from Oedenburg, that the 20th Instant 20000 Rations of Bread were bak'd there, and that 6000 Rations more were to be provided, to be sent all to the Body of Forces commanded by Count Maximilian Staremberg who has his Head Quarters at Ekenmarckt; from which they infer'd that General has form'd some Design against the Malecontents.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 4.

Francfort, Dec. 29. All the Advices from Alsace confirm, that the French are making great Preparations at Strasbourg and elsewhere, in Order to take the Field before the Germans the next Campaign. The Elector of Mentz, who has his Residence at Bamberg, causes a great Magazine of Ammunitions and Provisions to be erected in the City of Mentz. The Emperour has sent Order hither, for the Leath Pontons that are here to be kept in Readiness; but 'tis not yet known whether 'tis intended those Pontons shall be us'd on the Upper Rhine or sent to Italy.

From Cologne they write, that the Elector Palatine having receiv'd at Dusseldorp the News of the Death of the King of Portugal his Brother in Law, had given Orders for going into Mourning, with his whole Court, for 6 Months.

EDINBURGH.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Thursday Dec. 26.
